Diploma in Accounting

The Diploma in Accounting is the ideal course for those interested in an entry-level accounting position or as a pathway to professional accounting qualifications. In this course you will learn complex financial processes, including establishing efficient accounting frameworks for sole traders and partnerships, developing cost and revenue models, and understanding business practices and ethics in your profession.

The Diploma also enables you to concurrently obtain the London Chamber of Commerce & Industry's (LCCI) Diploma in Accounting by completing additional units in the LCCI curriculum.
